Network Scientific - the fresh approach to growing your business

Effective business development and marketing should be top priorities for any company looking to expand.

Network Scientific Sales and Marketing is a team of highly qualified consultants dedicated to assisting the growth of the scientific industries. We work with companies to help them identify new business opportunities, increase their network of contacts and boost brand awareness through targeted marketing campaigns.

Why choose us?

- We have extensive experience and knowledge of the scientific industry
- Our team offers the best of both worlds, with trained media professionals working alongside qualified scientists
- We take a personal approach with every new client - no job is too big or too small for us
- We have a keen understanding of how to create and convert new business leads
- We really care about helping businesses achieve their full potential
- We're an approachable and friendly bunch - what's not to love?

We didn't know where to start when it came to marketing, but we need not have worried as Network Scientific provided us with everything we needed; the team acted like part of the company and provided a high quality, professional result.

My business is relatively small and can't afford to employ a full-time marketing arm, which is why Network Scientific's daily rate was perfect for us. We know we're getting a quality result from people in the know and we're not tied into anything. It works perfectly for us

A fresh perspective...

You're passionate about your business and so are we. We will use our expert knowledge and understanding of your industry to help you develop a fresh and effective business development strategy.

We offer a full range of services all under one roof, including business development, marketing, lead generation and account management.

Our clients value our industry knowledge, experience and commercial focus. Our team includes degree-qualified scientists who have a highly technical understanding of their clients' products and services, and media professionals experienced in developing marketing campaigns that get results.

Network Scientific operates as an extension of your company. We'll work with you to identify which of our services will benefit your business most, whether it's a targeted email campaign, telemarketing or promoting your company online. This could include advice on how to make the most of your time on social media and the most relevant platforms, from LinkedIn and Google Plus to Pinterest and Twitter, for communicating effectively with your target audience.

We provide a friendly, high quality service to suit your requirements, whether your project is big or small, short or long term. Strong client relationships are important to us so consider us part of the family.

If you've got a problem you don't know how to solve or want to tap into a seemingly unattainable market, give us a call. We want you to become part of our network.

Our passion is your future.

Network Scientific offers a full business development package, including Recruitment Services, Sales and Marketing, and Advertising.
